

ATLANTA FALCONS

Atlanta Falcons Fan Council – Code of Conduct

This is the code of conduct that every member using interactive areas of this site agrees to adhere to. This includes chat rooms, message boards and other interactive areas such as multimedia and contests that may or may not involve user-generated content.

You will be frequently asked to offer your opinion on a variety of topics related to the Atlanta Falcons and your fan experience. Please try to stay focused on the specific topic that is being discussed, even if other users might stray from that topic. We greatly value your opinions and feedback, but our collective efforts to improve our offerings and respond to your concerns will be best served if you remain focused on discussing the specific topics and questions that are posed to you.

Communicating in a chat room or on message boards is different from face-to-face communication. Only the words are seen, not your facial expressions or tone of voice. Please pay careful attention to how you use your words.

Remember that the words you enter in a burst of passion or indignant anger will be there for you and everyone else to see, sometimes long after those intense feelings have passed. That's not meant to discourage spontaneity, but just a friendly reminder of the long-term existence and effects of what you post.

You may, from time to time, find yourself in disagreement with someone else's opinion. At times like these, please keep in mind it's safer and more polite to take issue with the comments rather than the person.

By using the Atlanta Falcons' service, you agree that you will not post any of the following material in chat rooms, message boards or other areas incorporating user-generated content:

- Any communication that is intended to harass, belittle, humiliate, threaten or cause embarrassment to a fellow member.
- Material that contains vulgar, obscene or indecent language or images.
- Any communication that contains spam (multiple copies in one area or the same communication in multiple areas).
- Material that defames, abuses or threatens others.
- Statements that are bigoted, hateful or racially offensive.
- Material that advocates illegal activity or discusses illegal activities with the intent to commit them.
- Unauthorized copyrighted material.
- Advertising or any form of commercial solicitation.
- Off-topic material that impedes or otherwise prohibits communication; disrupts the discussion including, without limitation, using fan names in topical boards that are offensive to the topic, the team, the sport and/or its fans, and repeatedly posting off-topic messages in a topical message board.

Statements or postings that violate the above terms will be deleted from postings upon discovery. While we may attempt to notify you if we move or delete a post, we are under no obligation to do so. Depending on the nature of the violation, the Atlanta Falcons - at their sole discretion - may terminate a customer's account.
